COMPLAINT

JURY TRIAL DEMANDED

Plaintiff Daniel Green, by his attorneys Simmons Hanly Conroy LLC and the Law Offices of Mitchell Garabedian, brings this action against The Diocese of Buffalo, N.Y.; St. Agatha Roman Catholic Church, a/k/a St. Agatha School; Our Lady of Charity Parish; and Donald W. Becker, and alleges, on personal knowledge as to himself and on information and belief as to all other matters, as follows:

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

1. This Court has personal jurisdiction over the Defendants pursuant to CPLR 301 and 302, in that the Defendants reside in New York.
2. This Court has jurisdiction over this action because the amount of damages Plaintiff seeks exceeds the jurisdictional limits of all lower courts that would otherwise have jurisdiction.
3. Venue for this action is proper in the County of Erie pursuant to CPLR 503 in that one or more of the Defendants reside in this County and a substantial part of the events or omissions giving rise to the claims asserted herein occurred in this County.

PARTIES

4. Plaintiff Daniel Green ("Plaintiff") is an individual residing in Howells, Orange County, New York.
5. Defendant Donald W. Becker, formerly known as Father Donald W. Becker

("Father Becker") is an individual residing at 13831 Eagle Ridge Lakes Drive, Apartment 103, Fort Myers, Florida 33912. At all relevant times, Defendant Father Becker served as a Roman Catholic priest, employee, and agent of Defendant The Diocese of Buffalo, N.Y. and St. Agatha Roman Catholic Church.

6. Defendant The Diocese of Buffalo, N.Y. ("Diocese of Buffalo") is a religious corporation organized pursuant to the New York Religious Corporations Law, with its principal office at 795 Main Street, Buffalo, Erie County, New York. The Diocese of Buffalo is a Roman Catholic diocese. At all relevant times, the Diocese of Buffalo created, oversaw, supervised, managed, controlled, directed and operated parishes or churches of the Diocese of Buffalo, including during all relevant times, St. Agatha Roman Catholic Church and Our Lady of Charity Parish.

7. Defendant St. Agatha Roman Catholic Church, also known as St. Agatha School ("St. Agatha's") was a religious corporation organized pursuant to the Religious Corporations Law with its principal office at 54 Alamo Place, Buffalo, Erie County, New York. As a result of several corporate mergers, Defendant OLCP is the legal successor to Defendant St. Agatha's. At all times relevant, the Diocese of Buffalo created, oversaw, supervised, managed, controlled, directed and operated St. Agatha's.

8. Defendant Our Lady of Charity Parish ("OLCP") is a religious corporation organized pursuant to the Religious Corporations Law with its principal office at 65 Ridgewood Road, Buffalo, Erie County, New York. At all times relevant, the Diocese of Buffalo created, oversaw, supervised, managed, controlled, directed and operated OLCP. As a result of several corporate mergers, OLCP is the legal successor to Defendant St. Agatha's Church.

FACTS COMMON TO ALL CLAIMS

9. Plaintiff and his family were parishioners of and attended St. Agatha's when Plaintiff was a minor child. Plaintiff served as an altar boy at St. Agatha's. Plaintiff also attended the parochial elementary school affiliated with St. Agatha's.

10. During the times relevant to the allegations set forth herein, Defendant Father Becker was assigned by Defendant Diocese of Buffalo to serve as a priest at St. Agatha's, where Plaintiff's family were parishioners.

11. Through Father Becker's position at, within, or for Defendants Diocese of Buffalo and St. Agatha's, Father Becker was put in direct contact with members of the Plaintiff's family, including Plaintiff, a minor parishioner of the Diocese of Buffalo.

12. During approximately 1981 when Plaintiff was approximately 12 years of age and approximately 1983 when Plaintiff was approximately 14 years of age, Father Becker approached Plaintiff at St. Agatha's sacristy, boiler room, and the garage adjoining St. Agatha's.

13. At St. Agatha's sacristy, boiler room, and the garage adjoining St. Agatha's, Father Becker used his position of authority and trust over Plaintiff, who was then approximately 12 to approximately 14 years of age, to sexually assault, sexually abuse, and/or have sexual contact with the Plaintiff. Father Becker sexually assaulted, abused, and/or had sexual contact with the Plaintiff at St. Agatha's sacristy, boiler room, and the garage adjoining St. Agatha's on at least 50 occasions between approximately 1981 and approximately 1983.

14. Father Becker used these encounters, gained through his position at St. Agatha's, which granted him access to Plaintiff when Plaintiff was approximately 12 to approximately 14 years of age, to sexually assault, sexually abuse, and/or have sexual contact with the Plaintiff in violation of the laws of the State of New York.

Supervisory Defendants' Responsibility for the Abuse Committed by Father Becker

15. At all times material hereto, Father Becker was under the management, supervision, employ, direction and/or control of Defendants Diocese of Buffalo and St. Agatha's.

16. Through his position at, within, or for Defendants Diocese of Buffalo and St. Agatha's, Father Becker was put in direct contact with Plaintiff.

17. Father Becker used his position at, within, or for Defendants Diocese of Buffalo and St. Agatha's and the implicit representations made by Defendants Diocese of Buffalo and St. Agatha's about Father Becker's character that accompanied those position, to gain Plaintiff's trust and confidence and to create an opportunity to be alone with, and touch, Plaintiff.

18. Defendants Diocese of Buffalo and St. Agatha's had the duty to reasonably manage, supervise, control and/or direct priests who served at St. Agatha's and specifically, had a duty not to aid pedophiles such as Father Becker by assigning, maintaining, and/or appointing them to position with access to minors.

19. Defendants Diocese of Buffalo and St. Agatha's knew and/or reasonably should have known, and/or knowingly condoned, and/or covered up, the inappropriate and unlawful sexual activities of Father Becker, who sexually abused Plaintiff.

20. Defendant Diocese of Buffalo and St. Agatha's had a duty to the Plaintiff to properly supervise Diocese of Buffalo and St. Agatha's priests to ensure that priests did not use their position with the Diocese of Buffalo and St. Agatha's as a tool for grooming and assaulting vulnerable children. Defendant Diocese of Buffalo and St. Agatha's knew or should have known that Father Becker used his position with the Diocese of Buffalo and St. Agatha's to sexually abuse minor children, including the Plaintiff.

Consequences of the Abuse

21. Plaintiff suffered personal physical and psychological injuries and damages as a result of Father Becker's actions, as well as other damages related thereto, as a result of the childhood sexual abuse Plaintiff sustained.

22. As a direct result of the Defendants Diocese of Buffalo's and St. Agatha's conduct described herein, Plaintiff suffered and will continue to suffer great pain of mind and body, severe and permanent emotional distress, and physical manifestations of emotional distress. Plaintiff was prevented from obtaining the full enjoyment of life; has incurred and will continue to incur expenses for medical and psychological treatment, therapy, and counseling; and has incurred and will continue to incur loss of income and/or loss of earning capacity. As a victim of Father Becker's sexual abuse, Plaintiff is unable at this time to fully describe all of the details of that abuse and the extent of the harm he suffered as a result.

CAUSES OF ACTION

FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

Assault – Father Becker

23. Plaintiff repeats and re-alleges each and every allegation set forth in paragraphs 1 through 22 as if fully set forth herein.

24. During approximately 1982 to approximately 1983 when Plaintiff was approximately 13 and 14 years of age, Father Becker intentionally touched Plaintiff's body when Father Becker engaged in the sexual behavior and lewd and lascivious conduct described above. Such conduct placed Plaintiff in imminent apprehension of harmful contact, including apprehension of further sexual contact.

25. As a direct and proximate result of Defendant Father Becker's actions, which included but were not limited to placing the Plaintiff in imminent and reasonable apprehension of harmful and offensive contact, Plaintiff suffered and will continue to suffer the severe injuries and damages described herein, including but not limited to, mental and emotional distress.

26. By reason of the foregoing, Defendant Father Becker is liable to Plaintiff for compensatory damages and for punitive damages, together with interest and costs.

SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION

Battery – Father Becker

27. Plaintiff repeats and re-alleges each and every allegation set forth in paragraphs 1 through 22 as if fully set forth herein.

28. During approximately 1982 to approximately 1983 when Plaintiff was approximately 13 and 14 years of age, Father Becker intentionally touched Plaintiff's body when Father Becker engaged in the sexual behavior and lewd and lascivious conduct described above. Such bodily contact was offensive and without consent, because Plaintiff, as a minor, was incapable of consenting to these acts.

29. As a direct and proximate result of Defendant Father Becker's actions, which included but were not limited to unjustified harmful and offensive physical contact and touching, Plaintiff suffered and will continue to suffer the severe injuries and damages described herein, including but not limited to, mental and emotional distress.

30. By reason of the foregoing, Defendant Father Becker is liable to Plaintiff for compensatory damages and for punitive damages, together with interest and costs.

THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION

Intentional Infliction of Emotional Distress – Father Becker

31. Plaintiff repeats and re-alleges each and every allegation set forth in paragraphs 1 through 22 as if fully set forth herein.

32. By engaging in the explicit sexual behavior and lewd and lascivious conduct described above, either Defendant Father Becker intended to inflict emotional distress upon Plaintiff, or Defendant Father Becker knew or should have known and recklessly disregarded the substantial likelihood that severe emotional distress would be the likely result of his conduct.

33. The conduct of Defendant Father Becker in engaging in the explicit sexual behavior and lewd and lascivious conduct with a minor described above is extreme and outrageous, beyond all possible bounds of decency, and utterly intolerable in a civilized society.

34. The mental distress and emotional injuries Plaintiff suffered and will continue to suffer were and are lasting and severe.

35. As a direct and proximate result of Defendant Father Becker engaging in the explicit sexual behavior and lewd and lascivious conduct described above, Plaintiff suffered and will continue to suffer the severe injuries described herein.

36. By reason of the foregoing, Defendant Father Becker is liable to Plaintiff for compensatory damages and for punitive damages, together with interest and costs.

FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Negligent Hiring/Retention/Supervision/Direction – Diocese of Buffalo and St. Agatha’s

37. Plaintiff repeats and re-alleges each and every allegation set forth in paragraphs 1 through 22 as if fully set forth herein.

38. Defendants Diocese of Buffalo and St. Agatha’s owed a duty of care to all minor persons, including Plaintiff, who were likely to come within the influence or supervision of Father Becker in his role as priest, counselor, trustee, director, officer, employee, agent, servant and/or volunteer, to insure that Father Becker did not use his assigned position to injure minors by sexual assault, sexual abuse, or sexual contact in violation of the laws of the State of New York.

39. Defendant Diocese of Buffalo and St. Agatha’s at all relevant times held the parishes of the Diocese of Buffalo out to be safe places for minors to attend, and its priests as individuals to whom it was safe to entrust the care of minor children. Defendant Diocese of Buffalo and St. Agatha’s entered into an express and/or implied duty to safely treat Plaintiff and assumed the duty to protect and care for him.

40. Father Becker sexually assaulted, sexually abused, and/or had sexual contact with Plaintiff when Plaintiff was a minor in New York.

41. Defendants Diocese of Buffalo and St. Agatha’s negligently hired, retained, directed, and supervised Father Becker, though they knew or should have known that Father Becker posed a threat of sexual abuse to minors.

42. Defendants Diocese of Buffalo and St. Agatha’s knew or should have known of Father Becker’s propensities for the conduct which caused Plaintiff’s injuries prior to, or at the time of, the injuries’ occurrence.

43. Defendants Diocese of Buffalo and St. Agatha's were negligent in failing to properly supervise Father Becker.

44. The sexual abuse of children by adults, including priests, is a foreseeable result of negligence.

45. At all times material hereto, Diocese of Buffalo's and St. Agatha's actions were willful, wanton, malicious, reckless, negligent and/or outrageous in their disregard for the rights and safety of Plaintiff.

46. As a direct and proximate result, Plaintiff has suffered and will continue to suffer the injuries described herein.

47. Liabilities of Defendant St. Agatha's were transferred to, or assumed by, Defendant OLCP. As a result, Defendant OLCP is liable to the Plaintiff for the damages caused by Defendant St. Agatha's stated in this cause of action.

48. By reason of the foregoing, Defendants Diocese of Buffalo and St. Agatha's are liable to the Plaintiff, jointly, severally and/or in the alternative liable to the Plaintiff for compensatory damages and for punitive damages, together with interest and costs.

FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Negligence/Gross Negligence – Diocese of Buffalo and St. Agatha's

49. Plaintiff repeats and re-alleges each and every allegation set forth in paragraphs 1 through 22 as if fully set forth herein.

50. Defendants Diocese of Buffalo and St. Agatha's were negligent in not knowing, that Father Becker posed a threat of sexual abuse to children.

51. The acts of Father Becker described hereinabove were undertaken, and/or enabled by, and/or during the course, and/or within the scope of his respective employment, appointment, assignment, and/or agency with Defendants Diocese of Buffalo and St. Agatha's.

52. Defendants Diocese of Buffalo and St. Agatha's owed Plaintiff, a minor at the relevant times of abuse, a duty to protect him from Father Becker's sexual deviancy and the consequential damages, both prior to and/or subsequent to Father Becker's misconduct.

53. Defendants Diocese of Buffalo's and St. Agatha's willful, wanton, grossly negligent and/or negligent act(s) of commission and/or omission, resulted directly and/or proximately in the damage set forth herein at length.

54. Defendants Diocese of Buffalo and St. Agatha's:

- a. gave improper or ambiguous orders or failed to make proper regulations, and/or employed improper persons or instrumentalities in work involving risk of harm to others;
- b. failed adequately to supervise the activities of Father Becker;
- c. permitted, and/or intentionally failed and/or neglected to prevent, negligent and/or grossly negligent conduct and/or allowed other tortious conduct by persons, whether or not their servants and/or agents and/or employees, upon premises or with instrumentalities under their control; and
- d. allowed the acts of omission and/or commission and/or any or all of the allegations set forth in this Complaint to occur.

55. At all times material hereto, with regard to the allegations contained herein, Father Becker was under the supervision, employ, direction and/or control of Defendants Diocese of Buffalo and St. Agatha's.

56. At all times material hereto, Diocese of Buffalo's and St. Agatha's actions were willful, wanton, malicious, reckless, negligent and outrageous in their disregard for the rights and safety of Plaintiff, which amounted to conduct equivalent to criminality.

57. As a direct and/or indirect result of said conduct, Plaintiff has suffered and will continue to suffer the injuries and damages described herein.

58. Liabilities of Defendant St. Agatha's were transferred to, or assumed by, Defendant OLCP. As a result, Defendant OLCP is liable to the Plaintiff for the damages caused by Defendant St. Agatha's stated in this cause of action.

59. By reason of the foregoing, Diocese of Buffalo and St. Agatha's are liable to the Plaintiff, jointly, severally and/or in the alternative liable to the Plaintiff for compensatory damages and for punitive damages, together with interest and costs.

SIXTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Breach of Non-Delegable Duty - Diocese of Buffalo and St. Agatha's

60. Plaintiff repeats and re-alleges each and every allegation set forth in paragraphs 1 through 22 as if fully set forth herein.

61. Plaintiff, when he was a minor, was placed in the care and supervision of the Diocese of Buffalo and St. Agatha's for the purposes of, inter alia, providing Plaintiff with a safe environment in which to participate in religious, educational, youth and recreational activities. There existed a non-delegable duty of trust between Plaintiff and Defendants Diocese of Buffalo and St. Agatha's.

62. Plaintiff was a vulnerable child when placed within the care of Defendants Diocese of Buffalo and St. Agatha's.

63. As a consequence, Defendants Diocese of Buffalo and St. Agatha's were in the best position to prevent Plaintiff's abuse, to learn of Father Becker's sexual abuse of Plaintiff, and to stop it.

64. By virtue of the fact that Plaintiff was sexually abused as a minor child entrusted to the care of the Defendants Diocese of Buffalo and St. Agatha's, Defendants breached their non-delegable duty to Plaintiff.

65. At all times material hereto Father Becker was under the supervision, employ, direction and/or control of the Defendants Diocese of Buffalo and St. Agatha's.

66. As a direct result of said conduct, Plaintiff has suffered and will continue to suffer the injuries and damages described herein.

67. Liabilities of Defendant St. Agatha's were transferred to, or assumed by, Defendant OLCP. As a result, Defendant OLCP is liable to the Plaintiff for the damages caused by Defendant St. Agatha's stated in this cause of action.

68. By reason of the foregoing, Defendants Diocese of Buffalo and St. Agatha's are liable to the Plaintiff, jointly, severally and/or in the alternative liable to the Plaintiff for compensatory damages and for punitive damages, together with interest and costs.

SEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Breach of Fiduciary Duty - Diocese of Buffalo and St. Agatha's

69. Plaintiff repeats and re-alleges each and every allegation set forth in paragraphs 1 through 22 as if fully set forth herein.

70. There exists a fiduciary relationship of trust, confidence, and reliance between Plaintiff and Defendants Diocese of Buffalo and St. Agatha's. This relationship is based on the entrustment of the Plaintiff while he was a minor child to the care and supervision of the agents or servants of the Defendants Diocese of Buffalo and St. Agatha's. This entrustment of the Plaintiff to the care and supervision of the Defendants Diocese of Buffalo and St. Agatha's, while the Plaintiff was a minor child, required the Defendants Diocese of Buffalo and St. Agatha's to assume a fiduciary relationship and to act in the best interests of the Plaintiff, as well as to protect him while he was a minor and vulnerable child.

71. Pursuant to their fiduciary relationship, Defendants Diocese of Buffalo and St. Agatha's were entrusted with the well-being, care, and safety of Plaintiff.

72. Pursuant to their fiduciary relationship, Defendants Diocese of Buffalo and St. Agatha's assumed a duty to act in the best interests of Plaintiff.

73. Defendants Diocese of Buffalo and St. Agatha's breached their fiduciary duty to Plaintiff.

74. At all times material hereto, the actions and/or inactions of Defendants Diocese of Buffalo and St. Agatha's were willful, wanton, malicious, reckless, negligent and outrageous in their disregard for the rights and safety of Plaintiff.

75. As a direct result of said conduct, Plaintiff has suffered and will continue to suffer the injuries and damages described herein.

76. Liabilities of Defendant St. Agatha's were transferred to, or assumed by, Defendant OLCP. As a result, Defendant OLCP is liable to the Plaintiff for the damages caused by Defendant St. Agatha's stated in this cause of action.

77. By reason of the foregoing, Defendants Diocese of Buffalo and St. Agatha's are liable to the Plaintiff, jointly, severally and/or in the alternative liable to the Plaintiff for compensatory damages and for punitive damages, together with interest and costs.

EIGHTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Negligent Infliction of Emotional Distress – Diocese of Buffalo and St. Agatha's

78. Plaintiff repeats and re-alleges each and every allegation set forth in paragraphs 1 through 22 as if fully set forth herein.

79. As described above, the actions of Defendants Diocese of Buffalo and St. Agatha's, their agents, servants, and/or employees were conducted in a negligent and/or grossly negligent manner.

80. Defendants Diocese of Buffalo's and St. Agatha's actions endangered Plaintiff's safety and caused him to fear for his own safety.

81. As a direct and proximate result of Defendants Diocese of Buffalo's and St. Agatha's actions, which included but were not limited to negligent and/or grossly negligent conduct, Plaintiff suffered and will continue to suffer the severe injuries and damages described herein, including but not limited to, mental and emotional distress.

82. Liabilities of Defendant St. Agatha's were transferred to, or assumed by, Defendant OLCP. As a result, Defendant OLCP is liable to the Plaintiff for the damages caused by Defendant St. Agatha's stated in this cause of action.

83. By reason of the foregoing, Defendants Diocese of Buffalo and St. Agatha's are liable to the Plaintiff, jointly, severally and/or in the alternative liable to the Plaintiff for compensatory damages and for punitive damages, together with interest and costs.

NINTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Breach of Duty in Loco Parentis – Diocese of Buffalo and St. Agatha's

84. Plaintiff repeats and re-alleges each and every allegation set forth in paragraphs 1 through 22 as if fully set forth herein.

85. While he was a minor, Plaintiff was entrusted by his parents to the control of the Defendants Diocese of Buffalo and St. Agatha's, as well as directly to Father Becker, agents or servants of Defendants Diocese of Buffalo and St. Agatha's, for the purposes of inter alia, providing Plaintiff with appropriate guidance and an opportunity to enjoy educational and youth activities under responsible adult supervision. These Defendants owe — and owed — a duty to children entrusted to them to act in loco parentis and to prevent foreseeable injuries.

86. Defendants Diocese of Buffalo and St. Agatha's breached their duty to act in loco parentis.

87. At all times material hereto, Defendants Diocese of Buffalo's and St. Agatha's actions were willful, wanton, malicious, reckless, negligent, grossly negligent and/or outrageous in their disregard for the rights and safety of Plaintiff.

88. As a direct result of Defendants Diocese of Buffalo's and St. Agatha's conduct, Plaintiff has suffered and will continue to suffer the injuries and damages described herein.

89. Liabilities of Defendant St. Agatha's were transferred to, or assumed by, Defendant OLCP. As a result, Defendant OLCP is liable to the Plaintiff for the damages caused by Defendant St. Agatha's stated in this cause of action.

90. By reason of the foregoing, Defendants Diocese of Buffalo and St. Agatha's are liable to the Plaintiff, jointly, severally and/or in the alternative liable to the Plaintiff for compensatory damages and for punitive damages, together with interest and costs.

WHEREFORE Plaintiff, demands judgment against the Defendants on each cause of action as follows:

- A. Awarding compensatory damages in an amount to be proved at trial, but in any event in an amount that exceeds the jurisdictional limits of all lower courts which would otherwise have jurisdiction;
- B. Awarding punitive damages to the extent permitted by law;
- C. Awarding prejudgment interest to the extent permitted by law;
- D. Awarding costs and fees of this action, including attorneys' fees, to the extent permitted by law; and
- E. Awarding such other and further relief as to this Court may seem just and proper.

JURY DEMAND

Plaintiff demands a trial by jury on all issues so triable.
